SPECTATOR 1981

DEDICATION

The class of 1981 dedicates their yearbook to the unsung heroes and heroines of Harrisburg Academy, Joyce and Marty, maintenance (above) and Betty, Nancy, Ruth, and Jan, kitchen staff (pictured below). This is our way of saying that we realize necessary people behind the scenes are sometimes taken for granted and we want you to know you're appreciated. Thanks.

Dear Class of '81,

Mindy Goodman expressed to us all her bonds to The Harrisburg Academy. Those bonds exist because people appreciate people here. We appreciate a Gekas goal. We appreciate a Treon article. We appreciate a Metz rejoinder. We appreciate a Burns cheer. We appreciate a Shoop exam. Space prevents expression of all of our appreciation for the Class of '81, but it is considerable. We appreciate you; we wish you well; and we invite you to visit us often.

Cordially,

Ralph E. Gilette
Your Headmaster

SENIORS

TORII KAY BURNS

The wise guys tell me that Christmas is kid stuff
... Maybe they've got something.

Two thousand years ago, three wise guys chased a star across a continent to bring frankincense and myrrh to a kid born in a manager with an idea in his head ...

And as the bombs crash all over the world today, the real wise guys know that we've got to go chasing stars again in the hope that we can get back some of that Kid Stuff born two thousand years ago.

Enjoy your stay, but don't leave your litter.
— Clive Cussler

JAMIE DIANE DANEBERG

Only take life seriously when you have to, and even then don't!

TIMOTHY RANDOLPH EAST

Learn to make the most of life,
Lose no happy day
Time will never bring thee back
Chances swept away!

— Sarah Doudney

When the loose mountain trembles from so high, should gravitation cease if you go by?

— Pope

KAREN KOHLER EDMUNDS

Child of pure, unclouded brow
And dreaming eyes of wonder
Though time be fleet and I and thou
Are half a life asunder,
They loving smile will surely hail
The love-gift of a fairy tale.

Through the Looking Glass

CONSTANTINE NICK GEKAS

A wise man will make more opportunities than he finds.

— Francis Bacon

ENGELOS NICK GEKAS

If any man seeks greatness, let him forget greatness and ask for truth, and he will find both.
— Horace Mann

MARY JANE GEORGES

The important thing is not so much in discovering one's roots as in branching out for one's self.

MOIRA ANN HOGAN

Imagine there's no heaven
It's easy if you try
No hell below us
Above us only sky
Imagine all the people living for today — ah —
Imagine there's no countries
it isn't hard to do Nothing to kill or die for and no religion too
Imagine all the people
living life in peace
You — you may say I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope some day you'll join us
and the world will be as one.
Imagine no possessions
I wonder if you can
No need for greed or hunger
A brotherhood of man
Imagine all the people
sharing all the world
You — you may say I'm a dreamer
but I'm not the only one
I hope some day you'll join us and the world will live as one.

— John Lennon

JAMES ALLEN HONEYWELL

There is a right way and a wrong way to do everything, and the wrong way is to make everybody else do it the right way.
— M.A.S.H.

ANDREW PAUL JUNG

Life is no brief candle to me. It is a sort of splendid torch which I have got hold of for the moment, and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations.

— George Bernard Shaw

BUSHRA SHAFI KHAN

She who lets the world, or her own portion of it, choose her plan of life for her, has no need of any other faculty than the apelike one of imitation.
— John Stuart Mill

FRANCIS GEORGE METZ

Niceness is an overrated quality. Being nice is how a man pays his way into a party if he hasn't the guts to be tough or the class to be brilliant.

— James Abbot McNeill Whistler

BRETT RAYMOND PETTIS

Maybe I'm laughing my way to disaster
Maybe my race has been run
Maybe I'm blind to the fate of mankind
But what can be done?
Have a good time.
— Paul Simon

THADDEUS HILLIARD PHILLIPS III

Go placidly amid the noise and haste and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore, be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

I am what I am,
And you are what you are,
but I am the one who is the star.

— Preston Dennard

SHELBY LU SHOOP

Men who look on nature, and their fellow-men, and cry that all is dark and gloomy, are in the right; but the sombre colours are reflections from their own jaundiced eyes and hearts. The real hues are delicate, and need a clearer vision.

A Daughter

Here I sit silently thinking,
What do I really see?
I see a pond all filled with water,
Reminding me, I also am a daughter
The pond a daughter of the earth,
Me, a daughter of my birth.

— Patricia

To give a love,
You've got to live a love.
To live a love,
You've got to be a part of.
When will I see you again?

FACULTY

A SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR LIBRARIAN, MRS. STIDMON

Over the years, Mrs. Stidmon has become very familiar to our class. Whether we were searching for reference material, selecting reading books, or just looking for a friendly chat, we always knew she would be there. Her devotion to young people and her extreme interest in reading and the experiences it offers to students, has spelled success for our library.

Mrs. Stidmon, although we often drove you to distraction with our loud library whispers, we knew we could still count on you for caring, understanding, and supporting. We are richer for having known you; and on your retirement, you will be missed by all of us. Thanks.
